Responsible to: The Head Teacher      Salary: Inner London Main Pay Scale

Purpose of Job

To carry out the professional duties of a teacher as set out in the 'School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document and the Professional Standards for Teachers and in doing so, provide excellent opportunities to enable our pupils to make their unique contribution to creating a better society.

Main Duties

- To maintain the school's Christian ethos and demonstrate the core values of the school.
- To be an effective and reflective classroom teacher, taking an active role in your own professional developments and be able to demonstrate and share good practice
- To work closely with colleagues to undertake medium and short term planning and the implementation of the school's connected curriculum.
- Ensure that planning, preparation, assessment and reporting meets the individual needs of all our children – to set tasks which challenge children and are well-matched to their learning needs, empowering all of our children to explore their potential through educational excellence.
- To develop a stimulating and interactive learning environment through the use of display and resources, to engage and inspire – to be able to share this with the school through class assemblies
- To ensure the maintenance of good order and discipline among all students and safeguard their Health and Safety, both on school premises and when they are engaged in authorised activities elsewhere.
- To foster an environment of spiritual growth and well-being.
- To systematically record pupil's progress and to use this to identify areas of strength and areas for future learning, using this to inform planning and to ensure teaching and learning is accurately pitched to meet the needs of all children.
- To use assessment data to plan lessons based on a thorough understanding of what the children can do and to use a range of assessment practice to assess pupil's progress and attainment within lessons.
- To work with Senior Leaders and external agencies to meet the needs of all children.
- To establish and maintain positive relations with pupils, parents and the wider school community.
- To report to parents formally at key points throughout the year and informally through daily discussions, ensuring that they are well informed about the curriculum, attainment and progress of their child and the contributions they can make to support their child's learning.
- To ensure that all school policies are rigorously followed

Other Professional Duties

- To effectively deploy additional adults within the classroom to support the needs of all learners.
- To set a good example in terms of dress, punctuality and attendance.
- To work as part of a team in all aspects of school development and take an active role in school life, attending and participating in school events.
- To establish a partnership with parents involving them in their child's learning through regular communication, after school clubs, workshops and homework etc.
- To be aware of the schools and the Local Education Authority's Equal Opportunity Policy, ensuring that all children have full access in order to maximise their achievement and minimise inequality.

- To keep abreast of current good practice through reading, attending courses, evaluating materials, resources and ideas and visiting schools.
- To prioritise and manage own time effectively, particularly in relation to balancing the demands of teaching and maintaining a work life balance whilst being involved in school improvement and development
- To implement school policies, national requirements and local policies.
- Lead and manage a subject area at the discretion of the Head Teacher* (not NQTs)

Safeguarding

- To have a due regard for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and to follow all associated child protection and safeguarding policies as adopted by the school and Local Authority.
- To work in compliance with the school's Health and Safety policies and under the Health and Safety at Work Act (1974), ensuring the safety of all parties with whom contact is made, such as members of the public, in premises or sites controlled by the school.
- To ensure compliance of procedures are observed at all times under the provision of safe systems of work through a safe and healthy environment and including such information, training instruction and supervision as necessary to accomplish those goals.
- To understand fully and adhere to the expectations of general data protection regulations (GDPR)

Accountability

- Teachers are responsible to the Head Teacher and, in her absence or on her behalf, the Deputy Head Teacher.
- Teachers are accountable to parents/carers and are in loco parentis when engaged in authorised school activities.

Teachers are responsible for the curriculum they provide which should reflect school and local education policy and Government legislation
